DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 14 is objected to because of the following informalities:

Claim 14, "said at least one contact member" should be -- said at least one contact pin --.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-3, 12-13 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cooper et al. (4,767,350).

Cooper et al., figures 17-18, disclose a pressure-tight contact device comprising an insulator (34) extending through a housing (300), at least one contact pin (98a) extending through the insulator, a seal (200) for sealing the insulator relative to the housing, and a connector shell (490) of insulating material positioned on the insulator and affixed to the housing, the connector shell including a terminal socket (510) having at least one contact tab in electrical contact with the at least one contact pin.

Regarding claim 2, the connector shell is one of a set of interchangeable connector shells each having a different configuration suitable.

Regarding claim 3, the electrical device housed in the housing is a motor.

Regarding claims 12 and 13, the at least one contact pin is electrically connected to the electrical device and to a source of electrical current and to at least one additional electrical device disposed in the housing.

Regarding claim 15, the connector shell including a bore.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cooper et al. (4,767,350) in view of Gerow (5,890,930).

Cooper et al. disclose the instant claimed invention as described above except for a plurality of projections extending from the contact pin.

Gerow, figure 3, discloses a replaceable contact connector comprising having a connector (14) including pin (94) with a plurality of projections (not shown) extending from the contact pin. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide Cooper et al. to have the contact pin, as taught by Gerow, in order to secure the pin into the insulator.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 4-11 are allowed.
7. Claims 16 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
8. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

None of the reference discloses a second O-ring seal for sealing the at least one contact pin relative to the insulator (claim 4) and the connector shell including a channel being disposed above the at least one contact tab (claim 16), in combination with the other claimed elements of the embodiments recited.

9. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
